Appendix–E : Safeguard Duty

Provided that such duty shall remain in force only for a period not exceeding two hundred days from the date on which it was imposed.

11. Final findings.

- (1) The Director General shall, within 8 months from the date of initiation of the investigation or within such extended period as the Central Government may allow, determine whether,
  - (a) the increased imports of the article under investigation has caused or threatened to cause serious injury to the domestic industry, and
  - (b) a casual link exists between the increased imports and serious injury or threat of serious injury.
- (2) The Director General shall also give its recommendation regarding amount of duty which, if levied, would be adequate to prevent or remedy serious injury and to facilitate positive adjustment.
- (3) The Director General shall also make his recommendations regarding the duration of levy of duty:
Provided that where the period recommended is more than one year, the Director General shall also recommend progressive liberalisation adequate to facilitate positive adjustment.
- (4) The final findings if affirmative, shall contain all information on the matter of facts and law and reasons which have led to the conclusion.
- (5) The Director General shall issue a public notice recording his final findings.
- (6) The Director General shall send a copy of the public notice regarding his final findings to the Central Government in the Ministry of Commerce and in the Ministry of Finance.

12. Levy of duty

- (1) The Central Government may, impose by a notification in the Official Gazette, upon importation into India of the product covered under the final finding, a safeguard duty not exceeding the amount which has been found adequate to prevent or remedy serious injury and to facilitate positive adjustment.
- (2) If the final finding of the Director General is negative, that is contrary to the prima facie evidence on whose basis the investigation was initiated, the Central Government shall within thirty days of the publication of final findings by the Director General under rule 11, withdraw the provisional duty imposed, if any.

13. Imposition of duty on non-discriminatory basis.

Any safeguard duty imposed under rule 10 or rule 12 shall be on a non-discriminatory basis and applicable to all imports of such article, irrespective of its source.

14. Date of commencement of duty.

- (1) The Safeguard duty levied under rule 10 or rule 12 shall take effect from the date of publication of the notification, in the Official Gazette imposing such duty.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1), where a provisional duty has been levied and where the Director General has recorded a finding that increased imports have caused or threaten to cause serious injury to domestic industry, it shall be specified in the notification under sub-rule (1) that such safeguard duty shall take effect from the date of levy of provisional duty.

15. Refund of duty.

If the safeguard duty imposed after the conclusions of the investigation is lower than the provisional duty already imposed and collected, the differential shall be refunded to the importer.

16. Duration.

- (1) The duty levied under rule 12 shall be only for such period of time as may be necessary to prevent or remedy serious injury and to facilitate positive adjustment.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1) of this rule duty levied under rule 12 shall, unless revoked earlier, cease to have effect on the expiry of four years from the date of its imposition:
Provided that if the Central Government is of the opinion that the domestic industry has taken measures to adjust to such injury or threat thereof and it is necessary that the safeguard duty should continue to be imposed, it may extend the period of such imposition:
Provided further that in no case the safeguard duty shall continue to be imposed beyond a period of ten years from the date on which such duty was first imposed.

17. Liberalisation of duty.

If the duration of the duty levied under rule 12 exceeds one year, the duty shall be progressively liberalized at regular intervals during the period of its imposition.

18. Review.

- (1) The Director General shall, from time to time, review the need for continued imposition of the safeguard duty and shall, if he is satisfied on the basis of information received to him that,
  - (i) safeguard duty is necessary to prevent or remedy serious injury and there is evidence that the industry is adjusting positively, it may recommend to the Central Government for the continued imposition of duty;
  - (ii) there is no justification for the continued imposition of such duty, recommend to the Central Government for its withdrawal:
Provided that where the period of imposition of safeguard duty exceeds three years the Director General shall review the situation not later than the mid-term of such imposition, and, if appropriate, recommend for withdrawal of such safeguard duty or for the increase of the liberalisation of duty.
- (2) Any review initiated under sub-rule (1) shall be concluded within a period not exceeding 8 months from the date of initiation of such review or within such extended period as the Central Government may allow.
- (3) The provisions of rules 5, 6, 7 and 11 shall mutatis mutandis apply in the case of review.

ANNEX
(See Rule 8)

- (1) In the investigation to determine whether increased imports have caused or are threatening to cause serious injury to a domestic industry, the Director General shall evaluate all relevant factors of an objective and quantifiable nature having a bearing on the situation of that industry, in particular, the rate and amount of the increase in imports of the article concerned in absolute and relative terms, the share of the domestic market taken by increased imports, changes in the level of sales, production, productivity, capacity utilization, profits and losses, and employment.

- (2) The determination referred to in paragraph (1) shall not be made unless the investigation demonstrates, on the basis of objective evidence, the existence of the causal link between increased imports of the article concerned and serious injury or threat thereof. When factors other than increased imports are causing injury to the domestic industry at the same time, such injury shall not be attributed to increased imports. In such cases, the Director General may refer the complaint to the authority for anti-dumping or countervailing duty investigations, as appropriate.

(2) The Director General shall issue a public notice regarding his preliminary findings.

(3) The Director General shall send a copy of the public notice to the Central Government in the Ministry dealing with Commerce and in the Ministry dealing with Finance.

10. Levy of provisional duty

The Central Government may in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 8C of the Act, impose a provisional duty on the basis of the preliminary findings of the Director General:

Provided that such duty shall remain in force only for a period not exceeding two hundred days from the date on which it was imposed.

11. Final findings

- (1) The Director General shall, within 8 months from the date of initiation of the investigation or within such extended period as the Central Government may allow, determine whether, -
  - (a) the increased imports of the article under investigation under section 8C of the Act has caused or threatened to cause “market disruption” to the domestic industry; and
  - (b) a causal link exists between the increased imports and “market disruption” or “threat of market disruption”.
- (2) The Director General shall also give his recommendation regarding the amount of duty which, if levied, would be adequate to prevent or remedy “market disruption”.
- (3) The Director General shall also make his recommendations regarding the duration of levy of duty.
- (4) The final findings, if affirmative, shall contain all information on the matter of facts and law and reasons which have led to the conclusion.
- (5) The Director General shall issue a public notice recording his final findings.
- (6) The Director General shall send a copy of the public notice regarding his final findings to the Central Government in the Ministry dealing with Commerce and in the Ministry dealing with Finance.

12. Levy of duty

- (1) The Central Government may impose, by a notification in the Official Gazette, upon importation into India of the article covered under the final findings, a safeguard duty under section 8C of the Act not exceeding the amount which has been found adequate to prevent or remedy “market disruption”.
- (2) If the final finding of the Director General is negative, that is contrary to the prima facie evidence on the basis of which the investigation under section 8C of the Act was initiated, the Central Government shall within thirty days of the publication of final findings by the Director General under rule 11, withdraw the provisional duty, if any, imposed under sub-section (2) of section 8C of the Act.

13. Imposition of duty on non-discriminatory basis

Any safeguard duty under section 8C of the Act imposed under rule 10 or rule 12 shall be on a non-discriminatory basis and applicable to all imports of such article from the People’s Republic of China.

14. Date of commencement of duty

- (1) The safeguard duty levied under rule 10 or rule 12 shall take effect from the date of publication of the notification in the Official Gazette imposing such duty.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1), where a provisional duty under sub-section (2) of section 8C of the Act has been levied and where the Director General has recorded a finding that increased imports have caused or threaten to cause “market disruption” to domestic industry, it shall be specified in the notification under sub-rule (1) that such safeguard duty shall take effect from the date of levy of the provisional duty.

15. Refund of duty

If the safeguard duty imposed after conclusion of the investigation under section 8C of the Act is lower than the provisional duty under sub-section (2) of that section already imposed and collected, the differential shall be refunded to the importer.

16. Duration

- (1) The duty levied under rule 12 shall be only for such period of time as may be necessary to prevent or remedy “market disruption”.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1) of this rule, the duty levied under rule 12 shall, unless revoked earlier, cease to have effect on the expiry of four years from the date of its imposition :

Provided that if the Central Government is of the opinion that the article on which such safeguard duty is imposed continues to be imposed into India, from People’s Republic of China, in such increased quantities so as to cause or threatening to cause “market disruption” to domestic industry and the safeguard duty should continue to be imposed, it may extend the period of such imposition :

Provided further that in no case such safeguard duty shall continue to be imposed beyond a period of ten years from the date on which such duty was first imposed.

17. Review

- (1) The Director General shall, from time to time, review the need for continued imposition of the safeguard duty imported under section 8C of the Act and shall, if he is satisfied on the basis of information received by him that -
  - (i) such safeguard duty is necessary to prevent or remedy “market disruption”, recommend to the Central Government for the continued imposition of that duty;
  - (ii) there is no justification for the continued imposition of such safeguard duty, recommend to the Central Government for its withdrawal :

Provided that where the period of imposition of such safeguard duty exceeds three years, the Director General shall review the situation not later than the mid-term of such imposition, and, if appropriate, recommend for withdrawal of such safeguard duty or for the variation of that duty.
- (2) Any review initiated under sub-rule (1) shall be concluded within a period not exceeding 8 months from the date of initiation of such review or within such extended period as the Central Government may allow.
- (3) The provisions of rules 5,6,7 and 11 shall mutatis mutandis apply in the case of review.

ANNEXURE

(See rule 8)

- (1) In the investigation to determine whether increased imports have caused or are threatening to cause “market disruption” to a domestic industry, the Director General shall evaluate all relevant factors of an objective and quantifiable nature having a bearing on the situation of that industry, in particular, the rate and amount of the increase in imports of the article concerned in absolute and relative terms, the share of the domestic market taken by increased imports, changes in the level of sales, production, productivity, capacity utilization, profits and losses, and employment.
- (2) The determination referred to in paragraph (1) shall not be made unless the investigation demonstrates, on the basis of objective evidence, the existence of the causal link between increased imports of the article concerned and “market disruption” or threat thereof. When factors other than increased imports are causing “market disruption” to the domestic industry at the same time, such “market disruption” shall not be attributed to increased imports. In such case, the Director General may refer the complaint to the authority for anti-dumping or countervailing duty investigations, as appropriate.

Safeguard duty on Aluminium Flat Rolled Products and Aluminium Foil

Ntfn 71 dated 19.06.2009

Whereas, in the matter of import of Aluminium Flat Rolled Products falling under heading 7606 and Aluminium Foils falling under heading 7607, of the First Schedule to the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 (51 of 1975) (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), from People’s Republic of China, the Director General (Safeguard), in its preliminary findings vide number G.S.R. 65 (E), dated the 2nd February, 2009, published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II, Section 3, Sub-section (i), dated the 2nd February, 2009, had come to the conclusion that increased imports of Aluminium Flat Rolled Products and Aluminium Foil into India from People’s Republic of China had caused and threatened to cause market disruption to domestic industry of Aluminium Flat Rolled Products and Aluminium Foils, and that this had necessitated the imposition of provisional safeguard duty on imports of Aluminium Flat Rolled Products and Aluminium Foil into India from People’s Republic of China;
